

RUSHING AID TO CROWN PRINCE

Ten Divisions Have Been Sent to His Imperiled Army

NINE CAME FROM PRINCE RUPPRECHT

And the Other Was Drawn from Eastern End of the Line

London, July 25.—Nine divisions of reserves from the army of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria and a division from the eastern end of the line have been rushed to the aid of the German crown prince between Soissons and Rheims, but, says Reuter's correspondent with the American troops in France, the Germans may well hesitate to push more troops into the already crowded salient, seeing the difficulty they have of feeding those already there.

German resistance on the southern sectors of the salient has been reduced to a mere shell, it is added, and the enemy doubtless is concentrating efforts on keeping open the northern outlets of the salient.

The allied drive toward Culchy-La-Chateau not only threatens the enemy communications with Fere-en-Tardenois, but is a serious threat for the German troops around Epieds, whose line of retreat would pass through Fere.

DEAD AND MISSING REDUCED TO SIX

Few Lives Lost in San Diego Disaster—Only Three Men Known to Be Killed.

Washington, July 25.—The number of dead and missing from the cruiser San Diego, sunk last Friday off Fire Island, N. Y., now has been reduced to six, Secretary Daniels said yesterday. Three of the six men were killed by the explosion which caused the ship to sink. The three men still missing are Clyde C. Blaine, Lomita, Cal.; John Paul Harris, Cincinnati, O.; and Andrew Munson, St. Paul, Minn.

WOMEN ARE USED IN Non-Profit Making Munitions Factory in Liverpool.

Liverpool, England, July 25.—There is a shell factory in this district operated almost exclusively by the daughters of business and professional men. Many are young girls who had never done any kind of work than needle work and a bit of cooking. The heavy work of the establishment is performed by the wives of sailors.

This is a non-profit making factory and it is the reply of the Cunard company to the Germans for the sinking of the Lusitania.

TWO GREAT MEDICINES SUPPLEMENT EACH OTHER

They are Hood's Sarsaparilla and Popton, the combination of which is giving so much satisfaction in the treatment of the impure, impoverished blood and weak, worn-out nerves that are so often found in the same individual nowadays. The use of both these medicines, even in cases where only one may appear to be indicated, is of great advantage. There is economy in it. All druggists.—Adv.

SEIZING ARMS IN IRELAND.

Raids Are Being Made, Usually Without Resistance.

Dublin, July 25 (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Raids for arms continue in Ireland and some are reported daily. As a rule the Sinn Feiners meet with no resistance in commandeering whatever weapons are discoverable in a raided house. But occasionally the owners fight and the raiders suffer. An attack was made recently by six armed men with blackened faces on a woman's house at Farnham. A retired army officer living in the house captured two of the raiders and drove the others away. The prisoners were committed for trial to the assizes.

In a case near Tulak, in Roscommon, a party of men with blackened faces raided a farmer's house in search of arms. They demanded his gun, and when he refused, dragged him out and handled him roughly. He escaped into the house and finding his gun turned it against his assailants, who fled.

The weapons seized by the Sinn Feiners are in many instances seized by the police in counter-raids. The other day several shotguns and ammunition were found in Tipperary. In one house during the seizure the police came upon a hoard of £150 in silver, which they took away.

WAR STIMULATES INDUSTRIES.

Cooking Ware, for Instance, Being Produced in England.

Dublin, July 25.—The war has given a stimulus to some Irish industries which once flourished and had fallen into decay. Cooking ware is now being produced in Wexford equal to the best made in France, and drain pipes and sanitary ware equal to the best obtainable from England. Experts declare that there is abundance of excellent clay deposits in the country suitable for the industry.

INDICTED FOR BOND THEFT.

All Bonds, Except One for $1,000, Have Been Recovered.

New York, July 25.—Indictments were returned yesterday against William Straus and George Rosenthal, charged with participation here in a $10,000 Liberty bond theft with Harry Goldman, who was arrested recently in New Haven, Conn., where he is held awaiting extradition to this state. The police announced that all the bonds except one for $1,000 have been recovered.

BONUS TO MOTORMEN.

According to the Electricity Which They Use.

London, July 25.—To encourage tramway car motormen to be economical in power consumption, the London county council has prepared a bonus scheme under which drivers are to get fifty per cent of the value of the electricity they are able to save.

RELIEVED RHEUMATICS

Recommending "Neurone Prescription 99"

Since the introduction of "Neurone Prescription 99," rheumatic sufferers no longer fear the changeable winter weather. This new combination has many heretofore incurables on its relieved list. "Neurone Prescription 99" is different from others in that it treats rheumatism as a disease of the blood and by its general action eliminates rheumatic conditions. Its effect is immediate as well as lasting, without any depressing after effects.

The whole system is benefited—lame, stiff and inflamed joints disappear where other remedies have failed.

It helps nature restore the blood to its natural, healthy condition in its positive action, resupplying what nature fails to supply fast enough. Mail orders filled, 50c and $1.00 the bottle.

Clothes for Elderly Men

There are really very few "old men" these days; some men have simply lived longer than others.

These older men are good clothes buyers; they've learned by experience that good quality is the only thing that pays. They want all-wool fabrics, the best of tailoring; and they're young enough in spirit to want good style.

Hart Schaffner & Marx make clothes that suit men of that type; and we sell them.

We invite all men, young men and older, to see these unusual suits and overcoats.

BLAMELESS FOR BAD MEATS.

Department of Agriculture Exonerated for Camp Food Conditions.

Washington, D. C., July 25.—The department of agriculture has completed its investigation of the statement made and widely published some weeks ago that meats and poultry unfit for food had been sold or offered for sale for army consumption at Camp Travis, and finds that the federal meat inspection was not involved. This announcement is made by the department because inquiries received indicate an impression that the reports reflected on its meat inspection service.

The published statements were based partly on information given out by the federal trade commission, but a letter from Commissioner Victor Murdock to Dr. John R. Mohler, chief of the bureau of animal industry, makes it clear that no blame attached to the meat inspection. Mr. Murdock says: "The question of meat contracted for by the army and examined by your inspector at San Antonio is not at issue. No complaint was heard of the meats issued by the camp quartermaster at Camp Travis. The meats referred to in the complaints were offered to the camp through channels which do not have the benefit of federal inspection."

CUT DOWN LICENSEES

Is Proposed for Ireland, with Compensation for Those Shut Out.

Dublin, July 25.—The Irish Association for the Prevention of Intemperance has approved the recommendation of the liquor trade finance committee that at least one-half of the 16,396 houses for the sale of drink in Ireland should cease to be licensed, and that compensation for the loss of the licenses should be provided by a levy on the remaining houses.

CALL FOR 624 MEN.

Crowder Wants Them for Service in Aircraft Production Bureau.

Washington, July 25.—Provost Marshal General Crowder to-day issued a call for 624 registrants qualified for limited service for work in the aircraft production bureau, 600 to train Aug. 1, for Kelley field, San Antonio, Tex., and 24 to train Aug. 2 for Washington for service at bureau headquarters.

United States Student Nurse Reserve Campaign.

The women's committee of the council of national defense in co-operation with the nursing committee of the council, the American Red Cross, the surgeon general of the army, and the surgeon general of the public health service will have charge of a campaign during the fortnight beginning July 29, to enroll twenty-five thousand young women between the ages of nineteen and thirty-five in what is to be called the United States student nurse reserve.

This enrollment will be conducted throughout the country by the state divisions and local units of the women's committee.

There exists now an extreme need for at least 25,000 women of character, intelligence, and education to fill the gaps in our hospital staffs caused by the calling of many thousands of skilled nurses to the fighting front.

There is only one way to fill these gaps; by keeping our hospital training schools supplied with students, who are not only preparing for service abroad and at home at the end of their course and at the same time are equipping themselves to earn their living in one of the noblest of professions, but from the very outset of their course are serving their country as well as learning.

Those who register in this volunteer body will engage to hold themselves in readiness until April 1, 1919, to be assigned to training schools in civilian hospitals or to the army nursing school and begin their course of study and active student nursing.

The service which we are asking calls for the best that the womanhood of America can offer in courage, devotion and resourcefulness. We cannot go forward to victory overseas if the wives and families of our fighters are not sustained in health and strength, if we cannot protect our workers against the hazards of war industries, if we cannot defeat accident and disease, our enemies at home. Upon the health of the American people will depend the spirit of their forces in the field.

Your fullest co-operation in this work is requested. Leighton P. Slack, chairman. Joseph G. Brown, secretary.
